

Super Startup Sunday

September 10, 2006

Borrowing from the writer of Ecclesiastes, “For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven.” We have set aside September 10th as a day to start something new, a new season, if you will.

8:30 a.m. Worship—Chapel

9:45 a.m. Sunday School

11:00 a.m. Worship—Sanctuary

Church Lunch—Gymnasium

Dessert and Open House for Crosswalk—CE Bldg.

You are invited to attend the Crosswalk Open House today in the Christian Education Building following the church lunch. Please enter through the middle doors.

NEW: Faith and Life Forum P W Suite

This brand new one-week, one-topic forum will appeal to those who want to drop in for a particular topic of interest. It will make use of a new web-based curriculum called “The Thoughtful Christian” whose mission statement states that it “seeks to help Christians wrestle with difficult questions by stimulating informed conversation and reflection about living faithfully in a complex world.” Robert Folsom will facilitate the conversation. The first three topics are:

- Sept. 10-17—“Creationism, Evolution, and Intelligent Design: What’s a Christian to Believe”
- Sept. 24—“Hezbollah, Israel, and Lebanon: Why Should Christians Care?”
- Oct. 1—“Shi’ites and Sunnis: Sibling Rivalry in the Muslim Family”
